

WorkSource Seattle-King County,
in collaboration with the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA), and the Workforce Development Council of Seattle-King County, is proud to present its latest Business Breakfast Seminar:

INDUSTRY INNOVATIONS & TRENDS AND THEIR IMPACT ON THE LOCAL WORKFORCE

Complimentary to Business!
Owners, Executives, Managers &
HR Professionals are Welcome

Wednesday

March 31st, 2010
8:30 am – 10:30 am

Georgetown Campus of South Seattle Community College
6737 Corson Avenue South
Seattle, WA 98108
C110/111 Conference Room

Space is Limited!
Register by March 25th

Email name & company to worksource@kingcounty.gov

Industry Expert Panelists:

- Patti McKinnell Davis, Director of Public Affairs
Washington Biotechnology & Biomedical Association (WBBA)
- Ken Myer, President & CEO
Washington Technology Industry Association (WTIA)
- Steve Gerritson, Business Development Manager
for Clean Energy & Technology practice
enterpriseSeattle
- John Vicklund, President
Impact Washington (formerly Washington Manufacturing Services)

Come hear from these industry experts the latest trends and innovations in their industries and their impact on local workforce now and in the future.

Sponsored by:

*This program is pending approval for recertification credit hours toward PHR/SPHR recertification through the Human Resource Certification Institute (HRCI).

